RASH ALL OVER BODY

Awful, Crusted, Weeping Eczema on Little Sufferer—A Score of Treatments Prove Dismal Failures.
CURE ACHIEVED BY CUTICURA

"My little boy had an awful rash all over his body and the doctor said it was eczema. It was terrible and used to water awfully. Any place the water went it would form another sore and it would become crusted. A score or more physicians failed utterly and dismally in their efforts to remove the trouble. Then I was told to use the Cuticura Remedies. I got a cake of Cuticura Soap, a box of Cuticura Ointment and a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, and before we had used half the Resolvent I could see a change in him. In about two months he was entirely well. George F. Lamb, 132 West Centre St., Mahanoy City, Pa., Sept. 26 and Nov. 4, 1937."

Books as Christmas Gifts.

There is no message of love, affection, good will or friendship that cannot be conveyed in a book. Give your friends a book for Christmas.

Trans's bookstore on Main street is the oldest in this part of the state, having been established about seventy years.

They have had long experience in selling books, and are showing a large and well selected assortment comprising all the latest and best of the season in standard and handsome illustrated gift books, the latest fiction, and a large and fine line of juvenile. Children's toy books are shown in great variety. Read their advertisement and call and make your selections while the stock is fresh and new. There is no better place to buy books. Cranston's prices will please you.

THE AUDITORIUM.

People in buying goods generally go to the place where they get the most for the least money, and that it is this way in the amusement world is evidenced by ever increasing patronage of the Auditorium. The bill for the present week consisting of four first class vaudeville acts, two of the latest and best illustrated and classical songs, and from four to seven of the finest motion picture subjects, would be hard to beat, both for quality and quantity. The acts are Guy Bartlett & Co., presenting A. Welch, Barbra Dream, an act you will like. Madie, Lucille Omega, Queen of the Silver Wire, a wonderfully clever and popular singer. Harmonizing Couple, Claude and Marion Cleveland, in a budget of songs and gossip, and Hearn and Rutter, two excellent clever boys who are some dancers. Lillian Morelle and her songs will no doubt add to her list of successes with Toodles, a catchy march song. A beautiful colored film, The Prodigal Son, will lead the list of moving pictures.

BREED THEATER.

The Fisherman's Bride, Beautiful Scenic Picture Story.

A quaint and beautiful picture story of the sea goes on exhibition at the Breed theater with the matinee today, being entitled "The Fisherman's Bride," with the exciting plot laid in Oregon, in the little city of Astoria, and for the first time in this part of the state. The fisherman's wife is besieged by lovers, all of whom follow the sea for an occupation. She has a decided preference for one in particular, but her stern father has chosen a future husband for her, and she naturally resents and elopes with the man of her choice, whereupon the rejected suitors decide upon some sort of revenge.

The young bridegroom is enticed to the wharves upon some pretense and while there is set upon by the fishermen, who throw a coat over his head and put him aboard an ocean tug. The little bride discovers this fact and reporting hurriedly to the custom officers they board a fast government boat and put in pursuit, capturing the stolen bridegroom some distance out at sea after a fierce struggle.

This is a powerful story, well enacted, with superb views of the coast and the quaint customs of the fisher folks.

Miss Wolcott has two especially delightful numbers for this week, including a splendid coloratura solo which she does with her usual artistic finish.

TOWN HALL, DANIELSON.

The Man on the Box.

The attraction at Town Hall, Danielson, on Friday, Dec. 17, will be The Man on the Box, a clean cut comedy, dramatized from "Harold" McGrath's novel of the same name. The play is a wonderful success on tour, and is an entertainment of rare merit and jollity.

The plot involves a practical joke, in which a lieutenant, Bob Worburton, of the regular army, lately resigned, masquerades as a family coachman, and the exchange of identities provides an entanglement that is highly diverting and a mixture of characters that is very amusing.

Withal the play is styled a comedy, it has its serious moments also, and there is a thread of melodrama, and a pretty love story intermingled with the laughable situations and amusing dialogue, all of which make The Man on the Box a play that will grip the interest at the very start and hold it steadily until the last word is spoken.

When the water will be seen in the role of the gay, misquoting leading comedian, supported by Miss Louise Langdon and a strong cast. Special settings and complete detail in stage accessories will serve to enhance the value of the production.

Seats on sale at Beckley's drug store.

McPherson's Holiday Stock is now complete, and you can do your Christmas buying at no better store anywhere.

One immense advantage this store has this year, is an entirely new stock of the latest and best the market affords.

It has been the inflexible rule of this establishment from its very foundation, never to permit deception, falsehood or fiction to enter into its advertising or selling of merchandise. We have found this a successful policy.

Another point is quality, and our friends are proving daily by their continued patronage that they appreciate the soundness of our motto.

You will find the same high grade lines of merchandise here at popular prices that have made this store headquarters for Economical, Satisfactory and Sensible Christmas Gifts.
